Don't jump so quickly to the 200. The 125 exc is a woods bike. Same frame and suspension as the 200. The 200 has more torque and will pull rudded hills better. But the 200 motor is more like a 250 than a 125. If you like 125's - rev high and shift alot - the 125 exc is a great bike. I think the 125 hits harder, revs higher and is more fun to ride.

The 03 KTM 125 and 200 have the same frame so the KTM will "feel" smaller and more flickable than the 250, but for a new rider it might not make a difference. so would you say that the 250 is a good bike for a rider such as myself, i have some experiance, i had a ttr 125 bout 4 years ago and ride a kingquad 500 like a &%$#@!ing maniac so i ...
