Europe—nationalism. This was something believed that all persons' loyalty should go not to the country's ruler but to the nation itself. When the nation also had its own independent government, it became a nation-state. Nationalists thought that people with a common language and culture were a nation. And they had the right

The rise of extreme nationalism, the Great Depression, and the yearning for more power leads to the rise of dictators throughout the world. Hitler, Mussolini, and Tojo form an alliance to invade other countries and kill anyone in their way. Roosevelt, Churchill, and Stalin form an alliance to combat the evils tearing through Europe and the Pacific.
