Body of Lies (novel) - Wikipedia

Ignatius uses this idea, the misdirection, to make the terrorist group Roger Ferris, his lead character, is after, think that the CIA have recruited someone in their ranks. Simple and effective, and of course dependent on the terrorists not having studied WWII in school. Body of Lies is well worth reading even if you have, or haven't, seen the film. It's nicely plotted and maintains an attention-grabbing pace pretty much all the way through.
