Love Story by Jennifer Echols - Goodreads

Still, Jennifer Echols does know how to tell a good story! Love Story: Echols, Jennifer: 9781439178324: Amazon.com: Books

This is a pretty typical romance story. Erin and Hunter are likable characters and their romance will keep readers turning the pages, but both are at times unrealistic. Erin's issues keep piling up as the story moves along, through flashbacks and her assignments for her creative writing class. There is some sex in the story, but it isn't explicit.

Book Review: Love Story by Jennifer Echols - Jessica Lawlor

Love Story(11) Jennifer Echols. At least, that's what I hoped. Each night during my fifteen-minute break at the coffee shop, I looked around at the customers, picked two of them to put together, and brainstormed a happy ending for them. Usually they were students because the coffee shop was so close to campus. They had no real problems.

So I am a huge fan of Jennifer Echols so that may be why I am so biased about the latest book of hers. Love Story introduces you to Erin, an overimaginative newly poor, ex-miktion dollar heiress to a horse farm empire that has been given to the boy known her whole life as her stable boy, Hunter.
